How would you describe the congregation's/organization's specific vision for ministry? How will this vision impact the community? Is the congregation part of a ministry vision or program?

Our church vision statement leads our lives in ministry to others and our community. As a Matthew 25 church, we are maintaining our congregational vitality through weekly Bible study, weekly Adult and Children's Sunday School and active fellowship, serving both our congregation as well as the neediest in our community. We are also working to eradicate systemic poverty in the surrounding community by focusing on food insecurities. Neighbors rely upon us for monthly hot meals and our fully stocked non-perishable food pantry. We also have a Good Samaritan program which assists people with their utility bills. Our biggest mission is our weekday school which shares our vision of spreading God's peace and love with each family they serve.

What is the nature and context of the community in which your congregation lives out its mission/vision? How will you address the emerging needs that are impacting your community?

We continue to mature and evolve our faith through study, worship, service and fellowship. Our community is very diverse not only in race, but in ethnicity and religious affiliation. This includes the student body of our Temple Terrace Weekday School (TTWDS). There is also a large non-English speaking population. We also have a growing homeless population in this area. To address the emerging needs of this community, we will continue our missions like monthly meals, food pantry, and bill assistance. We also support local mission like Meals on Wheels, Beth-El Farmworkers, Metropolitan Ministries, and Dawning Family Services, to name a few. We are fully supportive of our weekday school.

How will this call help complement the responsibilities of other staff/volunteer positions, and the life of the congregation/organization, so that you may accomplish your short and long-term goals for ministry?

This position should guide staff/volunteers by providing leadership with a collaborative approach, provide leadership and foresight to help church staff, session members, committee chairs and the congregation stay focused on our Vision Statement while effectively managing change, work with the Congregational Care Committee to extend outreach through-out the congregation, to expand prayer ministry, and to continue our current homebound ministry including Communion service, work with the Worship & Education Committee to provide meaningful worship opportunities through sermons, music and dialogue, and to expand "age specific" on-going Christian education programs and activities for children and adults, have thoughtful interaction with each of the committees - Session, Board of
