Who We Are

FPC Sarasota is a warm, inclusive, and active congregation in downtown Sarasota. We have over 100 years of history in the Sarasota community, providing leadership, education, and mission. Over the years this congregation has given birth to seven other churches in the Sarasota / Bradenton Area, establishing itself as a cornerstone of the local faith community. We believe we are called to faithfully serve the Lord Jesus Christ, spreading his message of love and forgiveness, and giving glory to God. FPC strives to be a vessel for healing divisions and fostering greater understanding through our shared faith and common humanity. We offer traditional and contemporary worship services and support ministries that care for people at every stage of life. With a committed group of volunteers and families, we are growing and excited to welcome a Director of Christian Education into our church family.

We are seeking an enthusiastic, faithful, and experienced leader with a passion for building community. Ideal candidates will be self-motivated, organized, compassionate, and creative with a willingness to collaborate.
